Frequently Asked Questions:

Are we allowed to bring in a photographer, videographer or photo booth?

Yes, you may bring in a photographer, videographer and/or photo booth with a reception only event. If you would like to add a photographer, videographer or photo booth with Lakeside, please let your coordinator know and they can provide pricing to add on these services.

*Does Lakeside provide guest books, card boxes or seating charts?

No, we do not. Clients must provide their own guest book, card box, seating chart, welcome sign, etc. Lakeside will provide 1 easel per banquet space to display either a welcome sign or seating chart that the client provides. Lakeside will provide a table with standard linen for sign in and a gift table. Please note that these items are not required but based on the couples personal preference.

Can I bring in my own decorations?

You can provide free standing and table top décor as long as there is no glitter and no confetti. Live flame candles must be in a glass vase or votive at least 1-2 inches higher than the flame. Typical items brought in are card box, guest book, favors, and any other décor that you would like on your gift, sign in or sweetheart table. You are also welcome to bring in a cake topper or any other free standing signs or décor that you would like. Nothing may be attached to walls or ceilings. If you are unsure about an item, please reach out.

What does the day of event coordinator do?

The day of event coordinator will be assigned 4 weeks before the wedding. They will reach out to introduce themselves. You can schedule your final planning meeting with them so they can finalize any remaining details such as final selections, room layout for your event, arrival time, etc. They will schedule a drop off appointment 1-3 days before your event so that they can get all items that we need from you for set up. However, they cannot accept perishable items in advance.

Is outside food or alcohol permitted?

No, outside alcohol is not permitted. Outside food is restricted but there are some exceptions such as a dessert bar or candy bar as long as items are store or bakery purchased. Nothing may be homemade. If you would like to bring in your own caterer, this option is only available Monday-Wednesday with restrictions. Please inquire with coordinator for additional information.
